

Fisheries Management Certificate

Summary

People aspiring to work in the fishing industry - for example as a water bailiff, fisheries inspector, or in a similar position in commercial fisheries - would be well-advised to consider this course. It also provides a sound knowledge base for those interested in running their own fisheries. On this course you'll find out about water quality, freshwater and fish biology, fisheries law and enforcement, monitoring and improvement, and angling and recreation.

Course Provider	Institute of Fisheries Management (IFM) PO Box 679, Hull, HU5 9AX 0845 388 7012 ifm.org.uk
Qualification Accreditation	Institute of Fisheries Management (IFM)
Academic level	Level 3
PET entry requirements	Level 2 English
Format of course material	The materials are normally supplied on a memory stick, but they can be supplied as paper-based if required.
Structure of course	Seven Modules <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Water Quality 2. Freshwater and Fish Biology 3. Fisheries Law 4. Fish Culture and Husbandry 5. Fisheries Maintenance, Monitoring and Improvements 6. Angling and Recreation 7. Fisheries Enforcement
Assignments	None, but coursework can be sent to tutors for feedback and exam preparation
Exam	Six 90-minute open book exams. Units 1-3 are compulsory. Learners can choose 3 out of 4 of the remaining units (4-7). Specific exam times throughout the year. Exam fees are included.
Estimated completion time	110 hours
Maximum course duration	The course normally is completed within 12 months but can be extended if required.
Prison support requirements	Contact supplier to facilitate tutor support or arrange exams. See contact details are above in the 'Course provider' section.

Supplier tutor's support	Tutor support is available across all of the modules. Tutors can be contacted either directly or via the prison staff. Tutors can give support on their modules, again, via the course manager.
Certificate	A Certificate is given upon successful completion of the course.
Progress	There are range of possible progression options. Call our free Advice Line on 0800 048 7520 on Tuesdays (10-12pm and 2-4pm) and Thursdays (10am-12pm and 2-6pm).